Term 3 Week 1

Thursday 19th July, 2012

Quote for the Week

It's how you handle your problems and troubles that counts, not the troubles themselves.

mixing with other people means that contact is unavoidable.

OLYMPICS

Only 8 days to go - be sure to check out our Mini-Olympics schedule included for Education Week.

Parents / Carers in buildings.

If you need to see your child or to drop something off, please go to the office for assistance. Please do not go directly to the classrooms of hallways because this can be disruptive and because children sometimes rush in and out of doors and along hallways and collisions can occur. Please operate through the office to help us help keep all safe.

FREE Old Furniture.

Free, from under our small cola. Eg: shelves, tables cupboards etc; Check with the office for a preview and access.

Body Piercings

These are a fashion accessory and are not a school uniform need. Please, no large pointy earrings etc.

Thank you for your continued support

MEGS University Visit - Year 6 (Making Educational Goals Sustainable)

On Friday July 20 Year 6 will head off to Newcastle University to experience a day on campus. Family members are invited and strongly encouraged to attend the visit with their child.

Students should bring morning tea, lunch and water on the day as there will be no opportunity to purchase food or drinks. Tea and coffee will be supplied to parents on the day.

Students should wear their sports uniform and a hat (no hat, no play). Family members to wear flat comfortable shoes as there is some walking.

Please make sure your child has handed in their permission note to their class teacher.

Welcome back to School - Term 3

Dear Parents, Carers and Community

Welcome to term 3. The children reported that they enjoyed the break, however some children and staff report that colds, flu and nits are around.

Nits: Eradication of these is almost impossible. To manage their prevalence requires us to wash sheets, pillows, pillow cases, bed linen, clothes and hair and treat with whatever works best for you. Some claim Selson Blue works, but we don't know for sure. Just like colds, Nits are passed on through contact, so going visiting, having visitors over and
